CARGO
Connections

We think it's fair to say that most of us are, to a degree, attached to our mobile devices and add to this the fact that 2020 has seen new ways of working emerge, and you'll see why we provide a Smartphone Service, where you can quickly find the contact details of your partners. You can also instantly contact each other via the skype, telephone and email live links. To access the service, see the Membership Tools page in our Members Area.

Thank you to everyone who joined us for our exclusive webinar with Susan Oatway, Senior Analyst at Drewry. The webinar covered the latest trends and outlook for the multipurpose shipping market and ended with a Q&A session. Huge thanks to Susan for her time and expertise! As promised, we recorded the session for those who were unable to participate due to varying time zones. Please see our Head Office Notices page to access the video. We have another exclusive webinar coming up ... full details will be issued via our Mailing List so watch this space!

The lockdown has prevented us from meeting this year, but we will be expecting our next gathering to be the largest in our history. It will be amazing to be in the same room again, but only once it is 100% safe to do so. I know that families and economies are still suffering but we are confident in the V-shaped recovery that many business leaders are talking about. Companies are gradually moving their focus from protecting their business to recovery and we have learnt much during the crisis which is enabling us to remodel, so we can emerge in a strong position.

Many of us are now enjoying the flexibility of working from home and the "new normal". For many this is feeling smarter than the way we worked before. We also appreciate more than ever, the importance of being connected across the world to trusted and reliable partners. Cargo Connections has seen solid growth ... did you know we have welcomed over 20 new Member's during the pandemic? We will continue to work hard in our aim to provide you with excellent freight forwarders in every corner of the world and will be scheduling a new Virtual Meeting Week in early 2021 so that you get the chance to 'meet' our new Members.

For now, please stay safe and enjoy this issue...

JOHN GOOD LOGISTICS SHOW THEIR GLOBAL PROJECT SKILLS

John Good Logistics get involved in all manner of shipments and their project division's latest cross-trade shipment covered the movement of printing machinery.

The printing machine needed moving from Saudi Arabia to Qingdao in China and John Good Logistics handled it all, from preparation of all the L/C documentation to arranging the 15 x 40'HC's, 2 x 40'FR and 2 x 20'FR. The loaded and lashed cargo was shipped and delivered with the letter of credit passing first time leaving the customer extremely happy with the service.

David Hartley at John Good Logistics comments: "When a shipper is looking to move cargo worth €2 million, they need somebody they can rely on. Especially when the goods are covered by a letter of credit and he is based in the UK but the shipment isn't.

It wasn't our largest load of the year or even the load with the highest value, but there are plenty of challenges an unwary shipper can fall foul of when working with Saudi Arabian and then Chinese customs. What started out as a fairly straightforward cross trade shipment quickly turned more complex once it was found that part of the machine was out-of-gauge. So flat-rack equipment had to be sourced at short notice, meetings with local transport regulations took place and the cargo was surveyed as the loading was undertaken with everything falling perfectly into place with the assistance of our overseas agent."

CC HOLDS FIRST VIRTUAL 1-2-1 MEETING WEEK

The COVID-19 pandemic has seen businesses implement flexible working practices including remote operations at a record rate in order to protect the workforce and provide business continuity.

Although everyone is anxious for the pandemic to be over, there is much uncertainty and new guidelines and protocols will continue for some time to come. This leaves companies adjusting to a new way of life.

Cargo Connections recently held their first Virtual 1-2-1 Meeting Week (provided free of charge) where Members were able to book 30-minute meetings with each other using their specially developed in-house Booking System.

A key feature of the system is being able to make notes against each meeting as well as one-to-one messaging so that Members could engage with each other before, during and after the Virtual 1-2-1 Meeting Week.

Cargo Connections President, Rachel Crawford said: "We are aware that communication and connections are vital and want to ensure that Cargo Connections continues to evolve and provide its Members with a strong networking platform. Indeed, belonging to organisations like Cargo Connections could be essential to the survival of many independent forwarders over the coming years. We are delighted that our first virtual event went so well as video meetings are an excellent way to connect in the absence of our annual gatherings." Feedback from participants included:

- "For us it was a great experience, this is our first year in the network, we were not sure if we could have the budget to get on the face to face meeting. So, it was perfect for us as our first experience within the network."
Corporacion Leidy Mar, Venezuela
- "At this present C19 condition, you have really explored the best way for a virtual 1-2-1 meeting. In general, one cannot find more than this at this time of C19 Pandemic. Hats off to CC organizers." V-Care Logistics Services, India
- "Seeing people face to face again was very good. Open discussions and very positive."
Inco Express B.V., Netherlands
- "Having video - it helps makes the experience as close to a 'face to face' meeting as possible."
Sadleirs Global Logistics, Australia
- "We could exchange lots of information which usually may not happen in emails or company introductions."
Worldline Logistics, India

- "When talking with someone for the first time it was useful to get a brief on their business. It was great to see people face to face. Also, it meant instead of putting off calls we actually planned to 'meet' which was good."
Wells Cargo, Ireland
- "It has been great to share feelings with the members, basically we talked much more about life than business, and that's great because it means we are already at a second stage of the relationship indeed."
Milestone Logistics, Spain
- "It's nice to talk via video, feeling easier to know each other. And I got to know marketing and pandemic situation of other countries, which is useful."
Shenzhen Uni-Home, China
- "This virtual meet provided a forum for open discussion and helped build rapport."
Aura Freight Time Shipping, UAE
- "It was very effective to develop and meet face to face new agents but also the agents who we are already working with."
Interworld Freight, Dominican Republic

Cargo Connections also provides online training and eZines which consist of helpful information and pointers on various topics. Recent issues include Holding Virtual 121 Meetings, Managing Flexible Work Arrangements and Working from Home.

A recent job successfully handled by the company is pictured below. The cargo consisted of an overhead crane with dimensions of 19.0 x 3.5 x 1.5m per unit and was shipped by RORO from Hamad Port in Qatar to Sohar Port, Oman. The scope of work handled by North Coast Logistic included collating complete details of the shipment, planning the schedule, arranging the documentation and vessel, arranging police escorts for the transfer to the port, transportation of oversized cargo to the port and the cargo loading.

Clari (Operation Executive) explains: "The big challenge was moving the cargo from the warehouse to the port, due to the over-dimensional cargo length. Also, a trailer broke down on route while transferring one of the units to the port but we took swift action and the cargo was loaded on the vessel on time. We took extra precautions to ensure the cargo was on schedule and our client was very satisfied with our service."

5th ANNUAL ASSEMBLY

20-22 OCTOBER 2021

CROATIA

The venue is an idyllic, award-winning base from which to explore the region's historic charm and the medieval Dubrovnik is just across the bay.

"Croatia has become a popular destination thanks to the fact they shot several scenes of the famous TV series 'Game of Thrones' in the country. However, that is not the only reason people flock to this beautiful country, it is incredibly diverse filled with culture, history, nature and delicious food!"

We have arranged a fantastic start to our event! We will meet at 14:00 on Wednesday 20 October for a relaxing boat trip across the bay to Dubrovnik Old Town, one of the world's finest and most perfectly preserved medieval cities in the world. We will be taken in groups of 25 by English speaking guides around the marble-paved squares and cobbled streets, all of which have also remained unchanged for centuries. We will then enjoy dinner together at the stunning Palm Terrace at Excelsior Hotel before returning to the hotel by coach at approximately 20:00.

Our official meeting will start on Thursday 21 October in the Congress Hall Ragusa and delegates will gain access to our exclusive Event Web App so that 20-minute business meetings can be arranged prior to arrival. After a productive day of 1-2-1 meetings, there will be time to rest before we meet at 19:30 for a dinner feast with an open bar at Restaurant Alverede. We have then arranged for us to relax with the exclusive use of the Posejdon Night Club. We have arranged an open bar and private DJ to help us dance off some of the calories.

Our official meeting will continue on Friday 22 October with more 1-2-1 meetings where delegates highlight their specialist areas, discuss cross trade, existing and new business as well as information regarding their country's regulations and requirements. These crucial meetings also provide an opportunity to share key import and export trade information.

SADLEIRS WITH OVERSIZED TRANSPORT FROM EAST TO WEST COAST OF AUSTRALIA

Australian members, Sadleirs Global Logistics were recently tasked with the movement of two locally manufactured oil and gas control rooms for their client, Chevron, from the East coast to the West coast of the country - near Brisbane in Queensland to Karratha in Western Australia. Each control room measures 28.5 x 7.2 x 4.5m and weighs 108mt.

The epic journey of over 5,900km across Australia and through multiple states required extensive planning, right from the original route survey through to the operational coordination and communications.

Andrew Scanlon (Project Development Manager at Sadleirs) says: "This was never going to be a simple move, with transport and transit approvals being required from 227 individual municipalities along with arranging both private and police escorts, a maximum speed limit of 40kmph, daytime movement and numerous obstacles to overcome. The two transits also encountered localised flooding, extreme heat, frost (yes - frost in Australia!), a lot of Covid-19 related tests & restrictions and worst of all, the massive Australian bushfires. We had it all!"

Despite all the difficult challenges, both control rooms were delivered safely, efficiently and in perfect condition to a very satisfied customer.

Sadleirs Global Logistics would like to extend their warm thanks to their project partners, Russells Transport and the entire Chevron team.
